

Kolu Sokodolo International Academy enters Gala Week.

It was once again a joyful moment for students of the Kolu Sokodolo International Academy, an institution owned and managed by the Kolu Sokodolo Children's Foundation on Sunday when Liberia's future leaders gathered to observe their Queen's and King's contest activities.

Each class of the school produced 2 candidates, a queen and a King to contest for the beautiful titles.

In total, seven males were seen sitting as Kings while seven beautiful females contested for the position as Queens

With 14 candidates in the race, it was a mouthwatering contest; something that saw Student Nasee Sannoh of the 4th Grade class emerging as winner in the contest as Queen, walking away with the "Miss. Kolu 2022" with the amount of $21,350.00LRD equivalent to (USD$ 142.33 ¢)

Anita Ansha of Grade One closely contested for the Queen ship, but later slade ending with $10,470.00LRD equivalent to (USD$69.8¢) and was named "Princess of Kolu 2022" as second winner

The winner for the king's contest was no one else, but Daniel Harris from the ABC class with the amount of $4,770.00LRD equivalent to ( USD$31.8¢)

Kolu Sokodolo International Academy marked the African Day Celebration

Second winner Meshach Chea from Grade 4 came close, but again fell by the wayside with the total amount of $2,940 LRD equivalent to ( USD $19.6¢)

Folks, as part of this year's celebration, the Crowning and Awards Ceremony is expected to be witnessed on Thursday, June 9, 2022, @10:00 AM on the school's campus in Unification City, Margibi County.

On Friday, June 10, 2022, it will again go down in history as the kings and queens of the Kolu Sokodolo International Academy will parade the streets of Unification City in observance of its Gala Anniversary.
