

Kolu Sokodolo International Academy marked the African Day Celebration

After three and a half years of existence as a tuition-free school, taking care of the underprivileged children of over 300 children of this generation, Kolu Sokodolo International Academy celebrated its first African Liberation Day.

This occasion brings back memories of cultural values and freedom. It's the annual commemoration of the foundation of the Organisation of African Unity on May 25, 1963. It's celebrated in various countries on the African continent, as well as around the world.

Our students were beautifully dressed in their African costumes, and they had the opportunity to display their God-given talents after carefully being trained by our hardworking staffers at the institution.

You can be a part of a child's life by supporting and donating $200 a year. You can visit our website at <http://www.koluscf.org>

Source information. Instablog9ja Lindaikajiblog UNICEF USA UNICEF United Nations Human Rights United Nations Foundation